

Advance Money Needed By Hanson Park For Winter Start-Up

Memberships for the winter ski season at Hanson Park are now on sale and will be available at a reduced price until December 1, 1983. Present membership costs are $175 for a full family and $80 for individuals regardless of age. On December 1 those prices will be increased to $200 and $95 respectively. Cross-country only memberships are available at $50 for a full family and $20 for individuals. In addition to the familiar memberships, this year Hanson Park is offering a Super-Ski Ticket. This ticket is redeemable for $51.00 worth of tow tickets. The price of the Super-Ski Ticket is $40.00.

The money derived from the advance sale of memberships is needed by Hanson Park to complete the necessary work needed for the start of the ski season. This year, the park is scheduled to open on December 26. Prior to that time all of the tows must be reconditioned and inspected. Preparations must also be made in the ski lodge and the ski shop. Some maintenance work and improvement projects have been completed but there is still more to be accomplished as well as supplies to purchase before the scheduled December 26 ski opener.

This year for the first time, Hanson Park has been included in the annual United Way campaign. Funds derived from the United Way campaign will be used to expand and enlarge the recreation and education program which Hanson Park provides for the residents and visitors of the Crawford County area.

Stolen Car Recovered

The Crawford County Sheriff Dept. recovered a 1981 Mercury Lynx stolen two months ago from Nancy Barrow, of Higgins Lake. The vehicle was discovered Oct. 11 about 9:30 p.m. off M-93 near a gravel pit in Grayling Township.

A vehicle rolled over once along the side of I-75 northbound near the 255 mile mark after the driver fell asleep letting the vehicle go off the road. Two passengers in the car from Wyandotte were taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment.

The Michigan State Police has issued a warning to northern Michigan merchants that 400 Travelers Express money orders have been stolen and the thieves are using them to buy goods. The money orders are made out for $200 and a check protector is used. Merchants can obtain serial numbers from city police or the sheriff dept. Two white males and one Indian male are suspects in the case.

Fall Fun-For-All

Children can have their Halloween bags decorated, bags will be provided, or have their faces painted to help with ideas for a Halloween costume.

State-Military Land Transfer Not Supported by DNR Staff

By Jon Thompson

A DNR staff report that recommends not transferring 65,000 acres of state land to the military has been accepted by the Natural Resources Commission putting a temporary hold on the transfer proposal.

The Department of Military Affairs wants the title to the state land they're already using because more federal funds would be available. The DMA also says the DNR would be removed from liability over the range areas.

Control of land use seemed to be the biggest concern of DNR staff members in their report that says transfer would not be preferable. Besides questions about hunting, fishing, and other recreational uses of the land, the DNR staff was concerned about special protection for Kirtland's warbler habitat within the 65,000 acres the military wants. The report also said there was public concern that the military would eventually fence the entire range area if they received entitlement to approximately 65,000 acres in Crawford County and Otsego County.

The 65,000 acre tract is located northeast of Grayling and has been used for aerial bombing and artillery ranges. The DMA wants to obtain a long-term lease for 20,000 acres to the west and south of Camp Grayling.

The military is using about 150,000 acres for training at Camp Grayling, according to the staff report. Rasmus Hanson donated 14,200 acres in 1913 to start Camp Grayling and these acres are a game preserve where hunting is prohibited. In 1934, the state transferred 18,000 acres to the military and hunting is not prohibited on these acres.

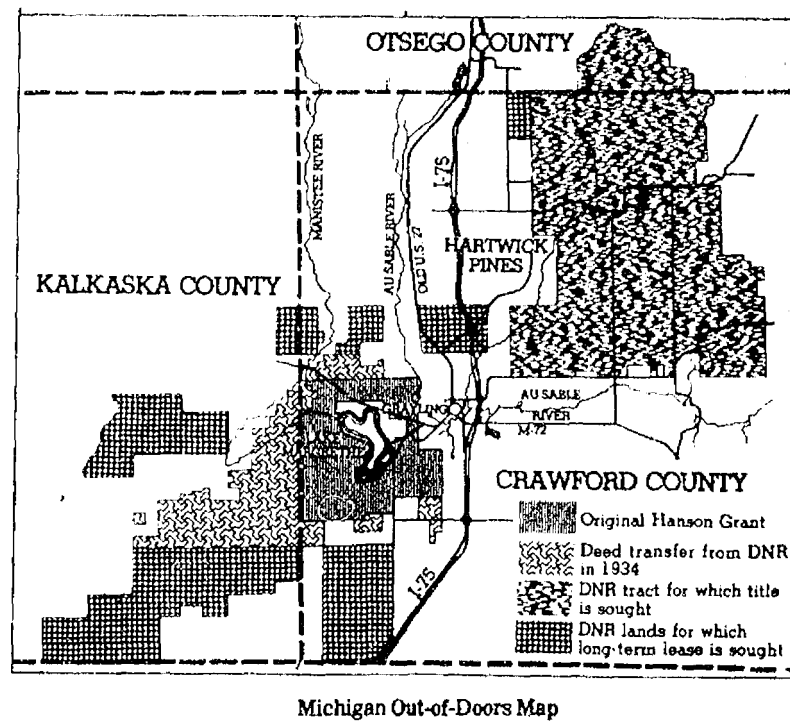

A long-term use agreement in 1941 gave Camp Grayling 57,600 acres of state land to use with the DNR retaining control over recreational use. Another 43,400 acres of state land is used by the military by applying for special-use permits every year. The DMA has also purchased 13,000 acres since Camp Grayling was built bringing the total number of acres used by the military to 146,200 acres.

If the requested lands were transferred, DNR staff said these eight safeguards would have to be written into the transfer agreement:

- The use of the land by the public for fishing, hunting, and other compatible recreation be assured.
- 4,960 acres purchased by state game and fish funds be exchanged for equally valuable habitat.
- No construction allowed within 400 feet of any stream and natural vegetation must be left for 200 feet on both sides of all streams.
- Lands acquired along the Manistee River with Heritage, Conservation, and Recreation Service (a federal agency) funds not to be transferred.
- Management of Kirtland's warbler areas be arranged between DNR and DMA.
- Areas to be fenced must be mutually determined by DNR and DMA.
- Use of land adjacent to Hartwick Pines must be clearly defined.
- Legislation adjusting payments in lieu of taxes to local government units to equal that paid for DNR lands be enacted before transfer.

In connection with the last safeguard, Representative Ralph Ostling introduced a bill on Sept. 20 to increase taxes paid on military land from ten cents to $1.50 an acre. The county and townships would each receive 40 percent with 20 percent going to the school district.

Weyerhaeuser Grants $15,600 To C-A Schools

By Jon Thompson

The Weyerhaeuser Foundation is giving the Grayling Middle School and Frederic Elementary School $15,600 to purchase micro-computers, programs for micro-computers, and physical education equipment.

Tony Moore, Grayling Weyerhaeuser plant manager, announced the Weyerhaeuser Foundation grants Monday in a meeting with school officials. The Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation is a separate, independent organization that is the major means of philanthropy for Weyerhaeuser.

Crawford AuSable Schools Superintendent Kent Reynolds said the grants will be greatly appreciated by everyone associated with the schools and he said Weyerhaeuser's presence is very evident in our community.

"The people at Weyerhaeuser make as much impact as these grants through their extreme interest in academic activities," Reynolds said.

Grayling Middle School principal Dale Nicholas said some middle school students were using the high school micro-computer lab during an after-school program, but the Weyerhaeuser grant will allow all middle school students exposure to micro-computers. Nicholas said all middle school students could have introductory courses on the micro-computers beginning with the second semester of this school year.

Frederic Elementary principal David Hawkins said with money as tight as it is nowadays, Weyerhaeuser's contributions are even more appreciated.

The grants will be $14,000 for micro-computers at the middle school, and $1000 for physical education equipment plus $600 for micro-computer software at Frederic Elementary.

This is the second series of grants given by the Weyerhaeuser Foundation. In 1982, the foundation gave the high school $16,000 for micro-computers and videotape equipment and gave $6000 to the Crawford County Library. The foundation gives grants to improve quality of life in communities where a large number of Weyerhaeuser employees live. Since the foundation was started in 1948, it has given more than $40 million in grants.

On offense, Grayling couldn't piece together a drive and the teams traded punts until the second quarter when the Saints started a drive on the 50-yard line.

Aided by a face-mask penalty on third down that kept the march moving, the Saints connected on a 25-yard pass into the end zone. But then the Grayling Homecoming heroes took over.

First it was Greg Helsel blocking the Saints' extra point kick. Then in the second half it was Jim Stewart and Mike Hickey combining to put Grayling ahead. Grayling got the ball on their own 37 in the fourth quarter and took 18 plays to score.

The Vikings had to come through on three fourth-down plays to overcome the gritty Saints. Hickey caught a pass on fourth and three near the 40-yard line to keep the drive going and then

What a Homecoming! Vikes Nip 2nd-Ranked Saints

By Jon Thompson

Greg Helsel should have had a clue it was going to be his night last Friday when he was named GHS Homecoming King at halftime ceremonies. Before the night was finished, the all-league senior kicked the winning extra point, blocked an extra point, and recovered a fumble that iced a 7-6 win for Grayling over the St. Ignace Saints.

Grayling knocked the air out of the Saints' unbeaten season while improving their record to 4-2. St. Ignace was ranked 2nd in the state in Class D and still lead their region in points for the playoffs because of five victories over Class B and C schools. The Saints found out early, though, that they were going to be in trouble with the Vikings. Grayling's defense — with three shutouts already recorded this year — manhandled the Saints in the first series.

By the second series the Vikings were dominating the line of scrimmage so clearly the Saints began going to the air often.

County Sets Millage

By Jon Thompson

County commissioners have set the 1983 county operational levy at 6.5 mills — an increase of .06 mills from last year.

The levy for Public Transit was set at .75 mills, an increase of .06 mills from last year, and the levy for the Commission on Aging was set at .50 mills, an increase of .02 mills from last year.

The combined increase equals .14 mills which will bring in an additional $17,876 for the county, $2,063 for Public Transit, and $1,375 for the Commission on Aging.

Debt retirement was set at .36 mills, the same rate as last year.

Commissioners were able to increase the millage without a vote of taxpayers because they were previously below the millage limit they could legally levy. Last year commissioners reduced the total levy by .2 mills. This year's increase brings the millage back to the legal limit commissioners can levy.

The decision on millage rates came at the commissioners' regular meeting Tuesday, October 11, and followed a public hearing on the proposed increases held Tuesday, October 4. Eleven persons besides six commissioners and the county clerk attended the public hearing. Along with public comment at the hearing, commissioners said the increase in tax revenues is needed because other revenues are declining while expenses continue to climb. Even with the approximately $21,000 increase, more than $137,000 needs to be cut from the proposed 1984 budget, commissioners said.

Crawford County's 6.5 operational millage is higher than three neighboring counties and lower than one nearby county. Otsego has a 4.3 rate, Roscommon 4.6, Kalkaska 5.2, and Oscoda 7.0. Tuscola County has the lowest in the state at 4.2 and Wexford and Menominee have the highest at 7.5 mills.

Does Red Cross Deserve Your Support?

By Harrison Goodhue For American Red Cross

In that section of the American Red Cross Charter which deals with Disaster Relief, the Congress of the U.S. also charge Red Cross to take:

"whatever action is necessary to mitigate and prevent human suffering from such natural or man-made disasters."

To discharge that responsibility, American Red Cross over the years has developed a nation wide system to train individuals to effectively render first aid to victims of accidents; to perform cardio pulmonary resuscitation on persons who have stopped breathing from heart attacks, electrical shock, or drowning; to prevent drownings by teaching persons

He's Got Your Number Maple Forest Resident Saves License Plates

By Jon Thompson

License plates that cows ate? City license plates for junk dealers? Licenses shaped like a state or made of solid copper? They're all on walls inside two garages owned by Victor Parsons of Maple Forest.

"My dad started this collection originally," Parsons said. "He was more of a 'saver' than a collector."

Parsons began his collecting of license plates in 1970 but he has been interested in plates since his high school days.

"I don't know why I did it, but I knew the license plate number of everyone I knew when I was in high school. If I knew you, I knew your number," Parsons said.

Even if Parsons didn't know you, he could usually tell where you bought your license plate by the letters and numbers.

"It was easy to tell where license plates came from up until 1969 when they changed from two letters and four numbers. Crawford County had the letters 'SY' for a long time and some people even got the same numbers every year and you could tell whose car it was by the plate. For instance, John Papendick, the sheriff of Crawford County used to get SY-1010."

Parsons' collection includes all Michigan plates from 1910 to 1984, plates from all 50 states, all 12 Canadian provinces, and the 8 territories of Australia. The pride of his collection, however, is a full collection of sample license plates from the 50 states.

In addition to his car plates, Parsons has Michigan License Plates on page 6

From Our Corner...

How about those Vikings...Grayling's Variety that is...coming up with a big upset over No. 2 ranked Class D football team in the state last Friday night...the Vikings made their Homecoming celebration complete with a 7-6 win over the previously unbeaten St. Ignace Saints...our Tip of the Derby to Coach Bill Klinger and his coaching staff and to all the Viking players for their great team effort in the upset over the Saints...

We were asked the other day if we were a graduate of the University of Michigan, and when we answered no, that the only college we went to was Uncle Sam's Academy, Army Branch, during World War II, the next question was how come we wear the U of M cap?...to answer that question we told the nosy person that Blue and Gold was sort of our favorite color seeing as how we spent K through 12 in the school to the north of us and we are a bit prejudice to the colors...after what happened a couple week's ago when the Vikings threw mud in the faces of the Blue Devils to the tune of 14-zip, we're glad that U of M's colors are what they are...with a big M and not a G...

To tell the truth about the cap...we attended a U of M game against the Spartans of Michigan State University a couple years ago along with Tom St. Germain, Dr. Paul Junttila and Tom Brogger, at the time, before the game it looked like it may rain, so with nothing for our noggin we invested in the cap...seeing as how we didn't want to hurt anyone's feelings we purchased a Michigan State pin for our jacket...Brogger is a MSU graduate and we had to ride all the way home with him...it was a good thing because State lost...Bo's boys won again Saturday, but there are a couple three teams laying in the weeds waiting for him this year such as Illinois, Iowa and perennial foe, the Ohio Buckeyes...see we didn't mention a thing about what U of M did to State a week ago...

An idle thought...it looks like we're going to have to wait until Christmas time for R.J. to surface again and tell us all about his escapades to Hoboken or Flatbush, we can't remember which borough he burrows into when he goes east...but then I guess he is busy being a teacher, real estate salesman and a retired undefeated basketball coach...

Once again we received a Letter to the Editor that was signed "A Concerned Citizen"...this one was in connection with the Junior Varsity football team, and like all the rest of the unsigned letters we receive the writer wasted his time and ours by not signing it...even if we couldn't print it, at least we could call the writer and talk to them about the incident...there is no way unsigned letters will be printed...we have to know who the author is, and if we feel they may be libelous we check with our attorney before printing a letter...like we have said many times before, we appreciate letters to the editor that are on a constructive issue, letters are not meant as vehicle to get even with some person or persons...to all our readers, if you wish a letter published it must be signed and have your address and phone number so if need be we are able to contact you...they also must be in good taste to even be considered...

This is going to take care of our turkey for this week...the ol' fella just ran out of things to fill up the bird so will say goodnight to T.J., Stefany and Amber...and to all of our readers have a nice weekend, right now we're planning on a little R & R in T.C.

People For The Humanist Way?

People For The American Way is a non-profit tax-deductible organization founded by Norman Lear to "oppose the Moral Majority" and "other religious groups on the radical right of the spectrum" which they say "have mounted an assault on our civil liberties." The "civil liberties" they seem to always refer to are things like homosexuality, abortion, and adultery.

The National Foundation for Decency awarded People For The American Way their March Pornographer of the Month Award. While PAW has run a full page ad in Playboy magazine, Playboy has given a $40,000 grant to PAW. Donald E. Wildmon, director of NPD, said, "The grant and the full page ad left no doubt that Playboy is promoting PAW and PAW is promoting Playboy philosophy."

In a recent study by S. Robert Lichter and Stanley Rothman to explore the reason for the growing anti-Christian bias in TV programming, they spent an hour with each of 104 of the top writers, producers and network officials. They discovered that only 5% strongly agree that homosexuality is wrong. Only 16% strongly agree that adultery is wrong. While some stated opposition to religious leaders trying to influence society, their goal is to "seek to move their audience toward their own vision of the good society." There is certainly a battle on for the minds and morals of Americans.

Companies sponsoring anti-Christian TV shows include: Esmark, Inc. with products like Peter Pan peanut butter, Playtex products, Swift food products, Butterball turkeys, All-Sweet margarine, Brown-N-Serve sausage and Sizzlean bacon. Another company is RCA with RCA televisions, Hertz car and truck rental, NBC television network, RCA stereo products and RCA records. Another company is Beecham Products with Aqua Fresh toothpaste, Hold cough medicine, Cling-Free fabric softener, Sucrets throat lozenges and Williams Lectric Shave.

Just in case you wonder where some liberal religious leaders stand on the issue we will name a few on the board of advisors for People For The American Way: Martin Marty, University of Chicago church historian; William P. Thompson, United Presbyterian Church; Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum, American Jewish Committee; Bishop James K. Matthews, United Methodist Church; Dr. James Dunn, Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs and Rev. William Howard, immediate past president of the National Council of Churches.

Will Americans return to our moral roots in Bible Christianity, or will Humanism become our national religion? The choice is really yours! (Adv.)

License Plates

gan motorcycle plates from 1948 to 1983, and motorcycle plates from all 50 states and Canadian provinces.

Among the odd plates is an Illinois plate made out of soy bean material. Farmers complained that cows were eating the plates and they were only issued from 1943 to 1948.

Parson also has plates from the city of Warren where junk dealers, caterers, peddlers, and practically every private business had to buy a special plate. There's even a plate for a horse-drawn vehicle that the Amish in Indiana were forced to buy.

The state of Tennessee license plate used to be shaped like the state and Northwest Territories plate was issued in the shape of a bear. A Maine 1948 issue was made of solid copper. Parson also has plenty of personalized plates to spice his collection, including his and his wife's "VP" and "Mrs. VP" plates.

Football

Stewart ran a keeper on fourth and two near the eight-yard line to give renewed life to the team. Finally Stewart hit Hickey for a five-yard touchdown tocs on fourth down.

Helsel calmly added the extra point with Stewart holding and Ron Wyman snapping the ball. It was the first extra point Grayling has kicked in two years.

St. Ignace tried to come back but Rodney Patterson and Jon Nicholas forced a fumble and later Helsel recovered another fumble in the final seconds.

Head coach Bill Klinger said Darrin White played a great game at defensive tackle anchoring the entire line. Patterson led in tackles with 16 and White and Helsel had 12 each. Klinger said the entire defense of White, Helsel, Patterson, Hickey, Stewart, Nicholas, Mick Lovely, Stacey Kent, Barsie Cross, Lance Davis, and Gary Gugin played an inspired game.

Grayling travels to Boyne City Friday and stands one half game behind Charlevoix in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference Class C standings.

The J.V. squad was defeated by St. Ignace for their sixth loss.

Red Cross

how to swim, how to survive in open water when their watercraft overturns or sinks; how to rescue drowning swimmers; actually the list goes on and on.

The Red Cross library of training manuals, charts, films, slide presentations, etc., for these safety training programs is unequalled. Virtually every Safety Training Activity in the U.S., whether it is conducted in military installations, industrial plants, schools, colleges, community activities such as fire departments, police departments, ambulance drivers and corps, or the like, utilize American Red Cross training programs.

For example, every Life Guard at a public or private beach or pool, to be licensed by local authorities must hold a currently qualified American Red Cross Life Saving Certificate. In most states, every employer of a specified minimum number of people per shift must have at least one employee on duty trained in, and holding a currently qualified, American Red Cross First Aid certificate.

The annual statistics for Red Cross life saving training activities is mind boggling!

For example, in the 1982 fiscal year, Red Cross Volunteer Instructors, in the U.S., held:

626,681 First Aid, CPR and other Life Saving Courses.

5,778,598 Individuals qualified and received certificates of completion of their courses.

426,497 Red Cross Volunteer Instructors held those courses.

13,004 Red Cross Volunteer Instructor Trainers qualified the Volunteer Instructors.

Red Cross, collectively, spent $28,593,000 to provide that training for those 5,778,598 individuals, and that is an average cost of $4.95 per person, despite the fact that every Instructor is a Volunteer and receives no pay for his Red Cross work!

Even at our local Chapter level the statistics are startling:

In the fiscal year just ended last June 30th, our Chapter's 16 Volunteer Safety Instructors and 1 Volunteer Safety Instructor-Trainer, held 67 courses in which 861 individuals were qualified in First Aid, CPR, Life Saving or Swimming.

That means that one of every eleven citizens of our County, JUST LAST YEAR, was trained effectively in one of these Safety areas!

Oh yes, American Red Cross has more than ADEQUATELY fulfilled its challenge to "mitigate and prevent human suffering from accidents and disasters."

There are millions of Americans whose lives have been saved, or whose suffering has been reduced, by the effective function of these Red Cross First Aid, CPR and Life Saving trained individuals.

And the debt all Americans owe to the Volunteer Instructors who give of their time and effort to accomplish this safety training is beyond calculation!

Doesn't just this one vital humanitarian Service alone, which Red Cross provides Americans, justify your financial support?

You probably received a letter from this Red Cross Chapter asking for a contribution to make it possible to continue to render all the vital humanitarian Red Cross Services to the folks of Crawford County. If you haven't already sent your check won't you please use the envelope and send a donation to this Red Cross Chapter?

If you didn't receive a letter won't you please send a check anyway to Crawford County Chapter/American Red Cross at RR2, Box 2525, Grayling 49738?

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our thanks to all the people who made our Installation Dinner a success. A special thanks goes to the four cheerleaders and four mat men from Grayling High School and to the committees for dinner and drawing tickets. Also, thank you to the ladies for their work on Friday.

The New Dream

By Rev. Thomas A. Bruno
Minister of
The Congregational Church
Roscommon

It has been several years now that a student from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo was on his way back to the college after a vacation break. It was late at night. Ahead of him, his headlights caught the vision of a black woman standing at the rear of her car trying to get the trunk of her car open. A flat tire facing the highway was obvious as he sped past.

The young man drove on about a mile, hesitating whether to help her or not. How easy it would have been to pass this woman up. She was not of his race or of his class. What did he really owe her?

Finally his better judgement told him to pull over which he did. The woman was well dressed and wearing a fur coat, and there was struggling to get her spare tire out of the trunk. When the tire was changed the woman was most appreciative and insisted on getting the student's address at college. She thanked him and drove off in the night.

He was without question, a good Samaritan! He could have been one of the cars which drove by, instead he offered his help to a person in distress. However, as Paul Harvey says, "Now for the rest of the story."

Two weeks later a van pulled up to the university to ask instructions to find a particular student. The same young man who had graciously helped the black woman in peril on the highway. Finally, the right dorm was located and the man discovered the young Samaritan was home. The van driver was eager to get going as he went down, unloaded the crate, and started to dolly up the stairs. As the delivery man went to unload the crate the young student was in total shock to discover someone was giving him a 21 inch television.

A card was attached to the crate, he eagerly tore it open, it read, "Thank you for your helping hand the other night, signed, the widow of NAT KING COLE. That is the rest of the story and the beginning of an excellent point!"

Governor Outlines Program For Economic Growth

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

Governor James Blanchard recently outlined 20 areas that constitute his framework for long-term economic growth in Michigan.

In announcing his program to a joint session of the Legislature, the governor said his program, most of which was first raised in conceptual form in last year's election campaign, will help to "pioneer the economy of the 21st century by building and rebuilding, moving Michigan ahead."

None of the initiatives are yet complete enough to be discussed in specifics, aides said, but Commerce Director Ralph Gerson said they would be released in "excruciating detail" in the weeks and months ahead.

Gerson said all the programs — about three-fourths of them require legislative approval — would be introduced yet this year, but the governor does not have a timetable for their enactment.

Blanchard said his plan represents "a three-part formula for rebuilding our state's competitive strength." That includes investment in job training, public facilities and businesses; a commitment to quality and efficiency; and a commitment to cooperation, he said.

The governor said Michigan must respond to challenges not just from other states and regions, but from all over the world. "The challenge that is Michigan's is the challenge of America — to meet and beat the competition in the marketplace of the world," he said.

The governor's program, which aides said amounts to putting his agenda into a "conceptual framework," includes, among other things, an announcement this month to turn welfare spending into a "workfare investment" offering work as an opportunity, not punishment.

Other proposals include securities regulation reform to make it easier for business, particularly small and emerging ones, to raise capital; the removal of legislative barriers to make it easier for franchisors to come to Michigan in part by shifting the franchise fee from those entities which operate in the state to the out of state franchising company; the in-progress work to streamline the processing of worker's compensation cases.

Because of structural changes in the state economy, the governor's plan covers efforts for diversification including a proposal for aiding forest products industries, assistance for food processing and to encourage auto suppliers to locate and expand in Michigan, sponsoring a statewide tourism conference and working with business and environmental groups to cut the cost of complying with environmental regulations while maintaining standards.

Gerson said although the governor in drawing together those ideas has not really said much that is new, the economic program reflects the governor's conclusions, following summer-long discussions, as to which areas can best be targeted for growth.

Aides said the details of the programs will be announced in several steps, frequently in appearances before groups which have helped develop the proposals.

Peter Plastrik, director of the governor's cabinet council on jobs and economic development, said the range of proposals represents the second phase of the governor's economic development program, following the short-term summer jobs and public works program begun earlier this year and the Strategic Investment Fund proposal now being developed in the Legislature.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

During summer, when the birds were more numerous, you probably thought about building one or more birdhouses and just didn't get to it. With winter coming on, it may be a good time to build some birdhouses. Don't try to entice very many of the same species into your yard because birds are territorial by nature. The inside dimensions of the birdhouse are more critical than workmanship, but I would recommend that the outside not be painted any bright colors. Old gray lumber or new lumber stained some dull tint will be more attractive to the birds. Just because you build a wren house does not mean you will be guaranteed of a wren moving in. They have to be in your area and satisfied with the area and the lodging before they will move in to stay. Some birds are very critical of house size and the distance off the ground. For example, a wren house should be eight to eighteen feet off the ground, the hole only one inch in diameter, and the inside dimensions between four and a quarter and five and a half inches. Equally as critical is the depth of the nesting cavity from entrance (hole) to the bottom, which for the wren is seven to nine inches. Be sure to drill several small ventilation holes on one side up near the roof overhang which will let a little light into the house when the adult enters the hole.

If you need further information, give me a call at the Park because I may have what you need.

Wrestling Clinic at Roscommon

Gold Medalist at the Pan American games, Steve Fraser, will be part of the Roscommon Wrestling Clubs fundamental clinic to be held at the Roscommon High School on Saturday, October 29.

Steve was the 198 lb. winner at this years Pan American games and is a likely qualifier for our Olympic team. He will give a demonstration that will show the differences between our style of wrestling and the olympic freestyle and greco roman style of wrestling. With the Olympic games in Los Angeles this coming summer those that attend will find this very interesting.

From 12:30 to 3:30 there will be a fundamental clinic for the new and beginning wrestlers. You will need to send your name and a $5.00 registration fee to the address below. There is only room for 50 participants in the clinic, so your timely reply is important if you want to participate. At 3:30 Steve Fraser will give a demonstration of freestyle and greco roman wrestling with the help of John & Tom Evashavski. John & Tom Evashavski are Big 10 Champions, John from University of Michigan and Tom from University of Iowa.

The public is invited free of charge. Also, anyone that would like to observe the clinic is welcome.

Volunteers On The Go!

The Crawford AuSable School's Volunteers started in full swing as early as the week after school started.

Many parents and grandparents are giving a morning or afternoon to work with individual teachers. As mentioned in previous articles, this means a variety of duties; some work on a one-to-one basis with students who may be having difficulties in certain areas, or students who have been absent and missed out on special instructions, running off ditto sheets, correcting tests, and workbooks, etc.

Also the past couple of weeks have been very busy as the Title I Office has had to assemble reading tests to be given to students from kindergarten through ninth grades. The volunteers were very responsive to our cry for help and as many as twenty ladies showed up to aid us in this task, some giving us two days of their time. Thanks Ladies!

The Remedial Reading Room in our schools is a great asset to our school children. This is a program which involves working with students on a one-to-one basis. The purpose is to help students with their reading problems. The Grayling Elementary program has had a good turn out of volunteers but still needs more parents to work with the Special Ed teacher on Thursday mornings. Also, anyone who enjoys art and could help with making flash cards for these students are asked to call Marianne Knepp at 348-7641 ext. 58.

Again thanks for getting our new school year off to a great start.

Volunteer Aid Coordinator

Halloween Safety Reminder

The City of Grayling Police Department would like to bring to everyone's attention that Halloween falls on Monday this year. The Police Department would like to recommend that this years Trick-or-Treating be done between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m., people driving in the Grayling area are asked to be exceptionally observant for the young "Goblins" during this time also.

A friendly reminder to parents and young goblins participating in Halloween activities would be:

3. Costumes should be non-flammable material, light in color for good visibility.
4. Flashlights should be carried after dark, parents should attempt to have their little goblins escorted and confined to their own neighborhood.
6. Parents being aware of suspicious items brought home by young people should question where they were obtained, and if any items are found to be abnormal they should be immediately brought to the attention of the local law enforcement authorities.

The chapter received funds from the Mellon Foundation - it was the only Michigan chapter to receive a grant - and built access steps to the river and fences to prevent over-use and erosion. When a child asks this or similar questions after the death of a parent they are really asking for reassurance that they will be cared for. Death of a parent can leave a child anxious about family routine, responsibility, and the life style that may develop. A child may need reassurance that others whom he counts on will not go away or die. They may also need to receive extra attention from the surviving parent. Spending time together while working or playing, talking about matters that are important to the child, and discussing events that will change the child's life are most important. Children benefit greatly from reassurance that everything that is happening around them includes their best interest. Let them know that they are important!

Appreciation Tea at Mercy

Nearly 60 people attended an Appreciation Tea October 7 to honor those individuals and groups that recently donated a beautiful piano to Mercy Hospital's Long Term Care Facility. The Tea was held in the Long Term Dining Room.

The piano was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fenton of Grayling, the Grayling Rotary Club and the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary.

Entertainment at the Tea was provided by June Feldhauser and Mike Cerven. Cerven led the group in a rousing sing-a-long following the ceremonies. Mercy Hospital Vice-President James Packard, on behalf of the hospital, thanked everyone involved.

The piano is used not only by patients, but guests and volunteers who entertain. Diversional Therapist Ruth Fritz said, "It has put smiles on a lot of people's faces. It really brightens up their day."

A commemorative plaque has been placed on the piano to acknowledge the donors' generosity.

Anyone who would like to volunteer their time and talent to play for the patients is invited to contact Ruth Fritz at Mercy Hospital.

Counselors at Law
LICENSEES are people you allow to come onto your property for their benefit or convenience. Most have your permission, but they do not need it if there is a reasonable purpose for them to be there. Guests, neighbors, a stranger asking directions, door-to-door salesmen and deliverymen are examples of licensees.

A search warrant is not needed under emergency circumstances such as saving a life or during a police chase to capture a dangerous criminal.

According to the law in Utah, it is illegal to wear heels higher than 1 1/4 inches.

The Truth-in-Lending Act of 1968 provides that merchants who sell products on an installment plan must clearly spell out what the finance charges are.

If you owe money, your creditor can go to court and have your employer deduct a certain amount from your paycheck to be paid directly to him. This is known as a GARNISHMENT.

Crawford County Board of Commissioners

September 29th Regular Meeting
Synopsis

The September 29th, 1983 meeting of the Crawford County Board of Commissioners commenced at 9:30 a.m. with all Commissioners present but Miller and Joyce. Thirteen visitors attended at various times. The minutes of September 13, 1983, were accepted as presented, and thirty three pieces of correspondence were reviewed and placed on file. Actions resulting from these communications included:

The failure of a proposed resolution opposing the creation of a national holiday honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and the tabling of a proposed resolution opposing creation of any additional national holidays.

Support for an Ogemaw County resolution opposing the subsidizing of the Midland nuclear plant construction with increased utility rates.

THOSE ADDRESSING THE BOARD WERE:

Treasurer Wakeley & Equalization Director Hunter, who discussed P.A. 5 of 1982, which requires the Board to hold a public hearing if they intend to collect any additional tax revenues resulting from an increase in state equalized value. Increase in S.E.V. for 1983 would generate approximately $21,314.00 in additional revenue for the County General Fund, Commission on Aging and Public Transit combined. That translates to .14 of a mill, fourteen cents per $1 thousand of assessed value, or about one dollar per parcel. Following an opinion from the Prosecutor outlining the number of votes required for passage, the Board adopted a resolution calling for a public hearing to receive testimony and discuss the levy of an additional millage rate for the ensuing fiscal year.

Beaver Creek Fire Chief Ed Holtcamp, who explained the advantages of a universal numbering system of Consumers Power Company being initiated in the Roscommon postal area of Beaver Creek. If implemented county-wide, it would greatly improve response time of emergency services by eliminating confusion caused by duplication of street names, and streets with several names. A computer system capable of pin-pointing exact locations anywhere in the county in five seconds is being pursued.

Walt Nowak & Bill Streur of Northern Michigan Substance Abuse Services, who discussed the structure, services, goals and funding of the 23 county agency. About 1 1/4% of the state liquor tax collected is returned to local agencies for use in prevention, treatment and rehabilitation programs.

Treasurer Wakeley, who informed the Board that an analysis of anticipated revenues and expenditures indicates a possible year-end deficit of $20 thousand, plus the additional cost of any indigent attorney fees incurred by the three courts. Transfers made to the General Fund included $65 thousand from the Public Improvement Fund and $21 thousand from the Ambulance Replacement Fund.

Sheriff White, who submitted estimates received on his department's 1979 Buick. The high offer of $250,000 from C. & F. Auto Salvage was accepted. The August Activities Report and status of replacement of Jail water closets were also discussed.

Committee Reports Included:

District Health: Crawford AuSable Schools will not be participating financially in the hearing and vision program this year. More information is being obtained.

Building & Personnel: Per Committee recommendation, no further action was taken on the request by a District Court employee for reconsideration of a recently granted wage increase. The authority of the Emergency Management Director to appoint an Assistant Director without Board approval was also discussed. Such authority is derived from past practice.

Mt. Northern Counties, County Judicial and NEMSCA included review of recent meetings, upcoming schedules and legislative updates.

Announcements were made relative to:

The land transfer between the State and Military Board. It is a dead issue at this time.

A leasing program for patrol cars. It is being pursued.

Carroll Wert having been appointed as the State's representative to the local D.S.S. Board.

A plant for the courthouse foyer having been donated by the Chief Shoppenagot Hotel.

The likelihood that the next Presidential Primary will be abolished.

The establishment of a legal water level for Sailing Lake being in the preliminary stages.

In other Business, the Board:

Granted payment of one weeks pay in lieu of vacation to the custodian.

Adopted an ordinance prohibiting the filing of false reports, or giving false information to the Sheriff Department.

Girl Vikes Win Again, Improve Mark to 8 - 2

By Jon Thompson

Kris Laudenslager's 21 points and 18 rebounds led Grayling to a 49-43 win over Charlevoix and Heidi Bendig's 22 points helped crush St. Ignace 48-22.

The two wins moved Grayling's season record to 8-2 and set a GHS record for the most wins earned by the girl's basketball team. The victories last week also kept Grayling in the league title race. The Vikings are 4-2 behind Gaylord 6-0 and Cheboygan 5-1 and tied with Petoskey 4-2.

Grayling played Rogers City Tuesday there and travels to Petoskey this Thursday. Grayling defeated Petoskey 49-45 at home in their first league game of the year.

Against Charlevoix, Laudenslager kept Grayling ahead most of the night but Charlevoix stayed close. After a 10-10 first quarter, 20-19 halftime lead, and 33-31 third quarter margin for Grayling, the Vikings managed to increase the lead to five points in the fourth period. Charlevoix came back again before Grayling won the game with good defense and free throws down the stretch.

Head coach Tom Mills said his squad didn't play all that good, shooting only 30 percent and not moving the ball downcourt as fast as they have been.

Besides Laudenslager's 21 points, Bendig added 14, Stacey Wolcott 8, Karyn Reynolds 2, Shelly Trenary 2, and Michelle Barber 2.

Grayling ran better against St. Ignace sprinting to a 32-7 half lead. Bendig was in double figures again with 22, Laudenslager had 8 points and 14 rebounds, Wolcott 6 points and 8 rebounds, Reynolds 3 points, Erin Jones 2 points and 7 rebounds, Heidi Derenzy 2, Lisa LaMotte 2, Barber 2 and Dawn Phelps 1.

Bendig and Laudenslager are among the top five scorers in the tough Michigan Huron Shores Conference and Reynolds also is in the top 15.

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Koika

A Career Day seminar is scheduled for Grayling High School in January covering small businesses, hospitality, protection services and public services. The program will be co-sponsored by the Counseling Center of the high school, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce. The Career Day Committee is seeking assistance from individuals in the categories to be covered in the seminar. It is essential that persons actually in the field talk to the young people in order for it to be successful. Persons interested in becoming involved should contact Sharon Ruby at 348-7795 or the chamber office at 348-2921.

A small but enthusiastic group met for the first time as a Snowmobile Council last week and agreed to encourage friends to attend the next meeting scheduled for November 7 in order to elect officers. The group was addressed by JoAnn Cox of the Grayling Holiday Inn about the background of the council and its affiliation with the Michigan Snowmobile Association. Working with the Winter Carnival Committee on a snowmobile safari was discussed briefly. The November 7 meeting will be held at the Holiday Inn beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Writing about snowmobiles reminds us that the new snowmobile maps covering the Skyline and Lovells Trails have been completed. They will be available during the winter at places of business dealing with snowmobilers.

Coming up on December 2-4 will be the Sno'Drift Rally featuring cars racing over back roads throughout Crawford County. The annual affair will be headquartered and begun at the Holiday Inn. It is interesting to note that the Pro Rally Car Race people must like the Grayling area for racing as they have already scheduled another event in December of 1984. The staging area at the inn this year will be set up so that persons interested in the race can also spend some pre-race time looking at the vehicles entered.

Is it possible that some of the former chamber members have not seen the value of community strength in striving toward goals in increased tourism and additional industry? While we are encouraged that many new members have joined, it is unfortunate that other established enterprises in the area have elected to go it alone. It should be noted that in order to have the maximum impact on attracting business, industry and tourists, the chamber needs sufficient funding. To make plans for attending various exhibits a budget must be set. That budget must be based on a firm income which in turn is dependent on membership renewal as well as continual growth in membership. The chamber is always open to suggestions on operating more efficiently and on better ways to attract tourists. It must be emphasized however, that any ideas on events and promotion will be viewed in terms of the available finances. Of course it is possible that former members do not understand the new, reduced membership fees because of the sliding rate schedule. If that is the case they may want to contact the chamber office for help in determining the correct amount.

This week the chamber salutes Dr. Paul Mesack of the Grayling Hospital for Animals. Dr. Mesack is in partnership with Dr. Wayne Casler. Their animal clinic is located on Millikin Road. Though he is a very busy person in the clinic, he also is a Chamber Board Member, serving on as many committees as his time allows. Dr. Paul Mesack, this is your week. We thank you for all the help you have given to the citizens of Crawford County and to our local Chamber of Commerce.

How come in a world that operates largely by machine and computer there is so much PRESSURE on the individual?

Maybe the answer is that few individuals are as well adjusted as our machines, as soundly programmed as our computers. Human beings are always encountering the unexpected for which we are unprepared.

Religion in every age has helped men meet and overcome the pressures that beset them. The simple realization that God cares about us is the beginning of a new sense of our mission in the world. We are not alone. Life is partnership with Our Lord. His power empowers us. His peace calms our turmoil.

There's much more to successful living than enduring pressure. Discover that in regular worship.

Work Crew Available

STAIRS at Brack Hill Road end help stabilize a gully into the AuSable River.

The Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District has a District work crew available to landowners in both counties.

The District crew works on conservation projects requested by landowners. Charges are then made to the landowner on an hourly or project basis at a nominal fee.

Conservation projects include tree planting for reforestation, wind breaks, Christmas trees, wildlife benefits and/or beautification; erosion control construction such as stream-bank stabilization; woodland pruning & thinning and wildlife habitat programs.

For further information regarding the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation work crew; contact the office at 409 Lake St.; P.O. Box 156; Roscommon, MI 48653 or telephone (517) 275-5231.

Kirtland Players To Present "Blithe Spirit"

The Kirtland Players will present Noel Coward's comedy "Blithe Spirit" on Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12 at 8 p.m., and Sunday, November 13 at 3 p.m. in the Kirtland Auditorium. The English farce is the story of a writer named Charles (Byron Erickson, Roscommon) who wants to collect information for a novel about psychic mediums.

He invites his friends, Dr. and Mrs. Bradman (Jerry Barnett and Judy Miller, both of St. Helen), and a medium named Madame Arcati (June Robinson, Grayling), over for dinner, which is ineptly served by Charles' maid Edith (Mimi Wilson, Grayling), which is followed by a seance. The ghost of Charles' first wife, Elvira (Dawn Pershown, West Branch) is accidentally summoned, so Charles finds himself living with two wives, one who is very much alive, Ruth (Sue Harnois, Mio) and one who has "passed over" to the other side. Madame Arcati returns to help Charles find relief from his mounting domestic difficulties to bring the play to a humorous and haunted conclusion.

Tickets for the performance are $3 for general admission and $2 for students/senior citizens, and are on sale now at the Roscommon Hardware, St. Helen Pharmacy, Higgins Lake True Value Hardware, Houghton Lake Chamber of Commerce, Mio Dressmaker's, Rose City Public Library, Grayling Holiday Inn, and the Kirtland College Bookstore.

For further information, call the college at 517/275-5121.
